9TH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

1 Corinthians 3:9-17

Brethren: For we are God's fellow workers; you are God's field, God's building. According to the commission of God given to me, like a skilled master builder I laid a foundation, and another man is building upon it. Let each man take care how he builds upon it. For no other foundation can any one lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any one builds on the foundation with gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, straw- each man's work will become manifest; for the Day will disclose it, because it will be revealed with fire, and the fire will test what sort of work each one has done. If the work which any man has built on the foundation survives, he will receive a reward. If any man's work is burned up, he will suffer loss, though he himself will be saved, but only as through fire. Do you not know that you are God's temple and that God's Spirit dwells in you? If any one destroys God's temple, God will destroy him. For God's temple is holy, and that temple you are.

Matthew 14: 22-34

At that time while dismissing the crowds, Jesus insisted that his disciples get into the boat and precede him to the other side of the lake. When he had sent them away, he went up on the mountain by himself to pray, remaining there alone as evening drew on. Meanwhile the boat, already several hundred yards out from shore, was being tossed about in the waves raised by strong headwinds. At about three in the morning, Jesus came walking toward them on the lake. When the disciples saw him walking on the water, they were ter-rified. "It is a ghost!" they said, and in their fear they began to cry out. Jesus hastened to reassure them: "Get hold of yourselves! It is I. Do not be afraid!" Peter spoke up and said, "Lord, if it is really you, tell me to come to you across the water." "Come!" Jesus said. So Peter got out of the boat and began to walk on the water, moving toward Jesus. But when he perceived how strong the wind was, becoming frightened, he began to sink and cried out, "Lord, save me!" Jesus at once stretched out his hand and caught him. "How little faith you have!" he exclaimed. "Why did you falter?" Once they had climbed into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat showed him reverence, declaring, "Be-yond doubt you are the Son of God." After making the crossing they reached the shore at* Gennesaret.

Glory to Jesus Christ! Glory Forever!

Dear all,

August 1 to August 15 in the liturgical calendar of the Byzantine Church. A season dedicated to preparing with prayer and penance a heart like our Blessed Mother, the Holy Theotokos.

We try to create a heart like Her's because on August 15 the Theotokos Fell Asleep in the Lord, and according to pious tradition after 3 Days was Resurrected and Assumed into Heaven. Recalling the great courage and the love with which this Heart accepted the Will of God at the Annunciation we anticipate the same Heart that would commend Herself into the arms of Her loving Saviour and Son, finally to be reunited to Him.

There are several practical things that we can do during this holy season, and they are all related to the same practices we do during the Holy Fast of Great Lent. Remembering that the three cornerstones of the Holy Fast are prayer, fasting and almsgiving, we can borrow those same practices for this time. Now, according to the tradition and canons of the Eastern Churches, the Dormition Fast is not as strict of a fast as Great Lent. Therefore one need not abstain from meat and cheese during the week (except for Fridays).

Here are a few special Marian devotions that you can consider using during your observance of the Dormition Fast.
